FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE PARLIAMENTARY CONSTITUENCIES IN THE PRESERVED COUNTY OF CLWYD

The Commission propose to make no further changes to their recommendations for parliamentary constituencies in the preserved county of Clwyd and confirm their revised recommendations as their final recommendations.

1. Provisional recommendations in respect of Clwyd were published on 5 January 2004. Objections to the provisional recommendations led to a public inquiry which was held in Bangor on 6 July and in Ruthin on 8 July 2004. The Assistant Commissioner who conducted the inquiry recommended changes to the Commission's provisional recommendations. Having considered his report and recommendations, and the evidence submitted, the Commission decided to accept his recommendations and revise their proposal for Conwy CC by changing the name to Aberconwy CC.

2. The revised recommendations were published on 3 November 2004. As with their provisional recommendations, the Commission were required to consider representations made within one month of publication. The Commission received one representation following publication of their revised recommendations.

3. The Commission noted that the representation received agreed that the provisionally recommended Conwy constituency should be renamed Aberconwy but objected to the name of the Clwyd West constituency (with consequential suggestions for the names of other constituencies).

4. The Commission, having previously considered and rejected proposals for alternative names of other constituencies in Clwyd and having made their final recommendations for those constituencies in the News Release of 3 November 2004, decided not to give this matter further consideration.

Final recommendations

5. After considering the representations made in respect of their revised recommendations for Aberconwy CC, the Commission have decided not to make any further changes and, accordingly, confirm their revised recommendations as their final recommendations. No further representations will be considered.

6. The Commission's final recommendations for the preserved county of Clwyd which will be included in their report to be submitted to the Secretary of State at the end of the general review and which are shown on the attached map, are for seven constituencies as follows (the 2003 electorates are shown in brackets):

Implementation of the recommendations

7. The Commission are required to submit their report on the general review of the whole of Wales to the Secretary of State after 16 December 2002 and before 17 December 2006. The Secretary of State has a statutory duty to lay the Commission's report before Parliament together with a draft Order in Council giving effect to the Commission's recommendations with or without modifications. If modifications are proposed, the Secretary of State must also lay a statement of reasons for the modifications. The draft Order in Council is submitted to both Houses of Parliament for approval and, after it is made by Her Majesty in Council, it cannot be called into question in any legal proceedings. The new constituencies take effect at the next general election following the making of the Order in Council.

Outline map

8. The electoral divisions are illustrated in outline on the map which forms part of this document (please note the copyright warning below concerning the map). The electoral divisions on the map are numbered, and these numbers and the names of the electoral divisions are listed at the end of this document, together with the 2003 electoral figures on which the Commission are required by law to work.
